2-Sentence HORROR STORIES

Throughout October, people of all ages are invited to write their best two-sentence horror stories and submit them at the Bowen Library!

We'll post them in the library for all to read and share some on our social media, website, and newsletter. Get into the Halloween spirit and get creative—how much horror can you pack into two sentences? (Google "2-sentence horror-stories" for inspiration!)

Fill in this submission sheet at the library, or print it at home from our website and fill it in, then drop it off at our front desk. You can also submit your two sentences via email to info@bowenlibrary.ca.
